LESLIE M. RODRIGUEZ,)
)
Defendant.)

This matter is before the court on the oral motions of counsel for the government and for the defendant Leslie M. Rodriguez for an extension of the discovery deadline and the pretrial motion deadline. The motions were made during the arraignment on the Indictment on April 18, 2012. Rodriguez agreed to the motions and acknowledged the additional time needed for the motions would be excluded under the calculations under the Speedy Trial Act. The oral motions were granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. The motions for an extension of time to complete discovery and file pretrial motions is granted. The parties shall have to May 3, 2012 , to complete discovery and Rodriguez shall have to on or before June 8, 2012, in which to file pretrial motions in accordance with the progression order.

2. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motions and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motions, i.e., from April 18, 2012, to June 8, 2012, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason counsel require additional time to adequately prepare the case, taking into consideration due diligence of counsel, and the novelty and complexity of this case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B).

DATED this 18th day of April, 2012.
